

Film screening and conversation with director Jennifer Mallmann

ROSA Wien screens “Moria Six” at WUK Vienna

Veröffentlicht am 04.10.2026

On 13 October 2026, the Viennese local group of ROSA e.V. together with Attac Wien will be showing the documentary film “Moria Six” at the WUK Vienna. Afterwards, director Jennifer Mallmann talks about the film and its creation. The discussion will be moderated by Anna Lena Buchleitner and Sidonie Ulreich by Attac.

In September 2020, a fire destroyed large parts of the refugee camp Moria on the Greek island of Lesbos. Six young refugees were subsequently blamed for the fire in a widely criticized trial and sentenced.

The documentary ‘Moria Six’ approaches the case through the exchange of letters between Hassan, one of the six convicts, and director Jennifer Mallmann. In his letters, Hassan tells of his everyday life, his desires and fears. Based on its history, the film focuses on European refugee policy, structural exclusion and the isolation at the European external borders.

After the screening, a conversation with Jennifer Mallmann will take place. The event of Anna Lena Buchleitner and Sidonie Ulreich from Attac Vienna. According to the organizers, the protagonists of the film cannot participate in the conversation themselves, as they do not have a residence permit that allows them to travel to Vienna.
